Painter's brush with success

AN ARTIST from Haverhill has been shortlisted for a £15,000 national prize for his work. Benjamin Sullivan, of Duddery Road, is one of seven artists up for the Lynn Painter-Stainers prize having beaten off competition from 800 other entrants from across the country. The winner will be announced in London on Monday.

Mr Sullivan, 30, submitted a portrait of his girlfriend Ginnie and the view from a window of their Haverhill home.

Born in Grimsby, Mr Sullivan says that Haverhill is unlike anywhere he has ever lived before.

He said: "I often do commissioned pieces, but I try to keep a balance where I also work on projects just for me. This painting took about three months, so it was a long one."

"It is a nervous wait now until Monday. I entered last year and was not even shortlisted. It is always a surprise if you get this far in a competition like this."

The Painter-Stainers prize is in its third year and aims to encourage creative representational painting and promote the skill of draughtsmanship. The winner will walk away with the top prize of £15,000 and five runners-up will receive £1,000 each. The work of the seven shortlisted artists will be on display at Painters Hall, 9 Little Trinity Lane, London, from November 21 to December 1. For more information on the contest and the finalists' exhibition visit www.painter-stainers.org

SPEED limits on a notorious route branded the "road of death" by drivers are set to be reduced.

On the day that three people died in separate incidents on the county's roads, highways chiefs recommended that three sections of the accident-blighted A1307 have their speed limits cut.

Five people have died on the road in the last two years and there have been 26 accidents this year.

The recommendations were made in a national safety review using a new set of guidelines urging authorities to take the number of accidents, lorries and pedestrians into account when setting limits.

It recommended that a section of single carriageway from Linton to the dual carriageway by Horseheath – where Haverhill teenager Stevie-Jay Sims and 35-year-old Anthony Bacon died within a month of each other last year – should be reduced from 60 to 50mph.

It also urged that the single carriageway from Little Abington to the dual carriageway south of Hildersham has its top speed cut to 50mph. And there are also proposals to reduce the limit in Abington from 40mph to 30mph.

A Cambridgeshire County Council spokesman said: "We have already put in a pre-emptive bid for funding for schemes that may need engineering work. The section towards Horseheath could be done quickly without engineering."

County councillor Mac McGuire, lead member for highways and transport, said: "The A1307 has been a concern and I welcome the news. This is not the end of the story, we will continue to look at it closely to improve safety. I would also appeal to motorists to slow down and drive appropriately."

Esther Cornell, of safety campaign group Access 1307, said: "We are very pleased. However, we're concerned to see the section of road near to Horseheath itself will not see a reduction. I know this has been a particular concern since the death of Imogen Barker there earlier this year."

Coun John Batchelor, who represents Linton, also welcomed the news but demanded more action. He said: "I would like to see proposals for the A1307 between Linton and Haverhill come forward and I am disappointed that a speed limit reduction here has not been proposed this time."

No change to road charge plans despite resignation

BY Rachel Extance
Email: editorial@newmarketweeklynews.co.uk

THE shock resignation of county council leader Shona Johnstone has not jeopardised plans for a Cambridge congestion charge, her successor claimed.

The Cambridgeshire County Council leader quit after admitting she made an error of judgement by intervening in the appointment of a new chief executive.

As the figurehead for the controversial proposals, her decision to step down after just six months prompted speculation that the plans would be dropped.

But Coun Keith Walters, caretaker leader until May, said it was business as usual - although he stressed the council had not yet committed to anything.

A series of road toll consultation roadshows kicked off on Tuesday and Coun Walters urged people to use their voice.

At 44, Coun Johnstone, a mother of three, was the council's youngest ever leader. Her resignation came after a turbulent few weeks in which she was accused of losing the council its new chief executive, splits emerged within her party over the issue of congestion charging and inspectors found the council was only performing to "minimum requirements".

Pressure has been mounting on Coun Johnstone to step down since it emerged she called Mark Lloyd, chief executive of Durham County Council, the day after he was offered the job of chief executive.

The appointments committee, which meets in secret, all formally voted in favour of Mr Lloyd.

But sources close to the council revealed the panel split four-three with Coun Johnstone allegedly favouring internal candidate, Gordon Jeyes, deputy chief executive for children and young people.

The committee agreed to put on a united front and offered Mr Lloyd the job but Coun Johnstone called him to express concerns.

Coun Johnstone maintains

■ GOODBYE... Shona Johnstone quit after admitting intervening in the appointment of Mark Lloyd, inset, as the new chief executive.

she did not ask him to withdraw but it is believed she had doubts about whether she could work with him.

When he called back to say he was still going to take the job, she expressed her disappointment. He then turned it down, leaving the council to start its search again.

Opponents demanded Coun Johnstone's resignation. When she refused, they reported her to the Standards Board for England.

Opposition councillors said on Monday Coun Johnstone had done the "right thing" but that it was a sad end to her political career.

Coun Johnstone said she decided to resign because she believed it would be in the best interests of the county council and its services.

She said: "I accept I made an inappropriate phone call but I was driven entirely by my desire to get the best possible candidate."

"As in any large organisation, the relationship between the leader or chairman and the chief executive is very important. If that relationship fails then it usually means the organisation fails. It was that concern that was my sole motive for making that phone call."

"At no point did I ask that candidate to withdraw. I accept I made an error of judgement in contacting the candidate directly. For that reason and for that reason alone I am now resigning as leader."

Coun David Jenkins, leader of the Liberal Democrat group, said: "She has done the right thing and I recognise that. That takes a certain amount of courage."

But he expressed doubts about whether the council would be able to implement its road toll agenda.

Conservative Coun Lister Wilson, chair of the adult and social care scrutiny committee, revealed last week there were 22 congestion-charging rebels in the Tory ranks.

Coun Jenkins said: "The administration shows signs of cracks. Keith has a great reputation and is a good consensus politician."

"Caretaker leaders generally don't have the mandate to make the changes necessary to make improvements. It's going to be incredibly tough."

He said the opposition would reconsider its Standards Board complaint, adding: "We said if she would resign we would consider that as justice being done."

Liberal Democrat Coun Julian Huppert, East Chesterton, said: "I'm pleased she has done the inevitable and honourable thing. It is a sad end to her career. She is very good at many things and it is a shame for it to end this way."

Coun Martin Ballard, Labour group leader, said: "My emotions are of some sadness. She's given herself very strongly to the job. On a personal level I wish her well."

Coun Johnstone will continue to be councillor for Willingham.

Winter waste wonderland

WASTE could be recycled into unusual festive decorations this year as part of a competition by Suffolk County Council. A prickly 800,000 Christmas trees will be bought this year in the UK, most of which will be thrown away. This year the council hopes to save as many trees as possible by asking schools and community groups to come up with alternative decorations, using only waste and recycled materials, and send them pictures of their creations. The group behind the best display will win a pantomime trip for 20 on Saturday, December 15. Visit www.sgrfm.co.uk and click on the link for Winter Waste Wonderland.

Sweet birthday treats for children's breakfast club

A BREAKFAST and after-school club celebrating its first anniversary has been so successful that it may well be expanding soon.

The Burton End Club meets at Burton End School in Haverhill and recently held a party for youngsters attending to celebrate its first year of operation.

The group is now catering for its full quota of 16 children aged between four and nine years, providing a range of games and activities, with some pupils from Castle Hill and Parkway Middle Schools also attending.

Leaders of the group are Sarah Cottage and Jan Benyon. Mrs Benyon said: "There was a call for it so we started up and it has really taken off."

"We have our full quota at the moment, but we might have to employ more staff so that we can take more children."

Heads back plans to close middle schools

BY David Williams

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

HEADTEACHERS are backing controversial plans to scrap middle schools in Haverhill.

Parents are also asked for their support as consultation begins over sweeping changes to Suffolk's education system.

For Haverhill, the preferred option of both the county council and town education chiefs is to create two primary-to-secondary school federations for the area.

Primary schools would cater for children aged three or four to 11-years-old, while secondary schools would enrol youngsters aged 11-16.

It would mean the closure of Chalkstone, Castle Hill and Parkway Middle Schools in Haverhill along with Clare Middle School.

A joint letter from Haverhill-based headteachers and governors sent to the Weekly News said: "Based on our experience, we strongly believe that the partnership or federation option, with two pyramids serving Haverhill and the surrounding areas, provides the very best opportunities for our young people.

"Schools in Haverhill and the surrounding area are working well together, providing a wide range of opportunities for our children and young people. So the priority in this reorganisation must be to increase teamwork and co-ordination, not to divide our limited resources."

But the group was less enthusiastic about calls from Clare residents for their own secondary school. They stated: "We understand the wishes of some people in Clare for a separate secondary school but we believe this would be a divisive step which would have a detrimental effect on young people of the area by making it more difficult to deploy available resources effectively. There would be a considerable cost in closing Clare Middle School and the procedures for opening a new secondary school are complex. This could result in excessive disruption to learning."

The communication came from Madeleine Vigar, headteacher, and Alan Pearson, chairman of governors, from Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College; and Howard Lay, headteacher and Bob Shepstone, chairman of governors, from Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College.

Suffolk County Council's School Organisation Review also involves closing two middle schools in Newmarket and two more in Mildenhall – consultation in that area will take place at a later date.

■ Consultation runs until January 18, 2008 with public meetings at schools, plus material also available from libraries, council buildings and www.suffolk.gov.uk/sor

■ All meetings will start at 7.30pm, not 8.30pm, as previously stated in last week's Weekly News.

Swimmer's anger at year-long pool loss

A KEEN swimmer has slammed managers at Haverhill Leisure Centre pool for leaving her high and dry for a year while renovations take place.

Miranda Henderson of Stoke by Clare is frustrated that the pool has to shut, when changes were only planned for a viewing area and changing rooms.

She also questioned the sense of re-developing a sports site to add fastfood outlets and a cinema "when soaring obesity rates and inactivity are seizing the headlines"

A joint statement from Abbeycroft Leisure and St Edmundsbury Borough Council said the firm was working to develop "a programme of alternative leisure opportunities" spokesman said: "We cannot reopen some areas such as the swimming pool, while work is taking place because the leisure centre is a large and complicated building with systems, such as the fire alarm, common to all parts."

A St Edmundsbury

Thieves grab gadgets

BURGLARS forced their way into a property in Bramble Close, Haverhill and stole a Playstation 3, Panasonic digital camera, mobile phone, knife, air gun and cash.

Raiders struck between 6am and 5.55pm on November 8. People with information are asked to call Dc Clare Humphreys at Haverhill CID on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Proud day as veterans remember the fallen

REMEMBRANCE Sunday saw large crowds gather along the High Street in Haverhill to support the veterans marching in memory of their fallen comrades.

The parade began behind the town hall and followed a route through High Street, Queen Street and Lower Downs Slade before ending at St Mary's Church at 3pm for the annual service of remembrance.

Phillip French, chairman of the Haverhill branch of the Royal British Legion, said: "We had a very large number of people turn out to cheer us on as we marched past this year and it makes all the difference."

"The parade is getting to where we hoped it would now, with

BY Laura Jean Morris

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

many supporters, and it looks like our Poppy Appeal funds will be bigger this year than ever. We are very grateful to all those who turned out for us as it made the day wonderful."

Mr French said the best part of the parade for him was the salute to the town and borough mayors with the crowds watching from the sidelines.

He said: "It makes you proud. But when we stop at the war memorial it makes you think about those who have died to ensure the freedom of this country."

"The thing about remembrance Sunday is that it is not just about people involved in the two world wars. It is for every conflict since the first world war."

Lionel Alexander, vice-president of the ex-serviceman's club in Clare, said it was the first time their new standard had been included as part of the parade.

Mr Alexander said: "It was a very proud moment for us and a long time in coming. We were too late last year to have the standard organised for the parade. The standard was carried by ex-serviceman Peter Flemming."

Bury St Edmund's Boys' Brigade accompanied the parade along with local Scouts, brownies and guides.

He was one of a group given prizes from Suffolk County Council after being nominated for the customer service awards by colleagues.

Mr Hickford was the public protection directorate winner, and the colleague who nominated him said: "David represents all that is good in the retained service. On the fire ground he will always give 110 per cent."

Real truth behind the Pubwatch scheme

Sir, In an article last week on the Pubwatch scheme, town clerk Gordon Mussett suggests that all licensees must be a member of the scheme and this must be mandatory.

This suggests that landlords who do not wish to take part in the voluntary scheme are running rougher pubs, and that anyone who is in the scheme is a danger to the public. Well, what planet are you on Gordon Mussett?

We think the real truth about Pubwatch is the police use it as another arm to the law outside of people's democratic rights, and another bully big brother situation. Most licensees agree that Pubwatch is a good scheme, but they are in control of their own premises and now have personal licences, and do not need or want Pubwatch, especially in its present form in Haverhill. It is their right, Gordon Mussett, to decline from your voluntary scheme without fear of intimidation or persecution. We also know that having links with the police to stop manager incidents in pubs are not worth it as seven out of 10 licensees said that when trouble happened and they needed assistance, which was seldom, the police turned up long after the incidents had been dealt with by the licensee. So we have come to the conclusion the only ones getting any benefit out of this scheme is the police – for monitoring everyone's movements.

We think that in the licensees' interest they should exercise their rights and wipe their hands of Pubwatch. It is voluntary and licensees have no obligation to be part of it. Pubwatch can never be law as it is wide open to discrimination. It was initially a good idea set up to prevent persistent offenders from causing licensees and the public any hassle. This is far from what it represents now.

1) If you are selected for Pubwatch, you do not necessarily have to have committed an incident in a public house, just getting arrested whether you are a victim or the aggressor, means you are considered.

2) You do not get any right to a defence.

3) You now have a right to an appeal, as from January 2007, but if you have no right to a hearing this must be because they automatically find you guilty and in this country we have the right to have a hearing if it adversely affects your life, by the very nature of our constitution.

4) The accuser that selects you can stay anonymous and they do not have to tell you who your accuser is.

5) Pubwatch ignores our civil rights. It operates in collusion with the police to discriminate against anyone who may have been in bother in the past.

Sir, Please can I thank the headmaster, secretary, staff, voluntary helpers and the children of Coupals County Primary School. They put on a harvest tea on October 19 for some pensioners in the Haverhill area. I was lucky enough to be invited and I had a really great time. To the headmaster and the children of Coupals Primary School, thank you so much for the invitation to your harvest tea, I enjoyed it very much. It was nice to see all the effort you had put into the occasion, it made me very happy. To the staff, voluntary helpers of Coupals Primary School, thanks to you all for the few happy hours I spent at your school in your company. It was a lovely surprise to be invited out to your harvest tea and I really enjoyed the afternoon.

Following rules at centre

Sir, Whilst I am genuinely sorry that four-year-old Tai Rose suffered a broken leg playing at Boomerangs Play Centre, I note that your article states that his parents were "sitting in the parent area" and not, as the Boomerang centre rules clearly state, supervising his play. I welcome this new, well-organised play centre and have taken my granddaughter there successfully on several occasions but, I expect to adhere to the rules and take responsibility for her safety when she is in the play area. I would assume that play centres such as Boomerangs would not be allowed to operate unless they had already passed stringent rules of health and safety. It follows, therefore, that if we choose to allow our children to use it, we must accept full responsibility for their safety and care and not, in my opinion, unfairly and erroneously blame the facility.

Golfers club together

GOLFERS in a charity tournament raised £14,000. The bumper sum came from the annual Haverhill Charity Classic Golf Tournament. It was organised by the town's golf club and Rotary Club members. In a presentation at the Haverhill Golf Club, Sue Meader from the East Anglian Children's Hospices, received a cheque for £8,276 from Terry Bishop, vice captain of Haverhill Golf Club. John Senior, chairman of Haverhill Rotary Club, received a £6,000 cheque for the Rotary Charities Fund. The annual tournament in July, followed by an evening auction, has become a popular local event and this year 40 teams of four players took part. Chris Briggs, chairman of the organising committee and president of Haverhill Golf Club, said: "We get wonderful support from the golf club members and committee, as well as the businesses and the local community. "It is a great day, but more important is what good the money can do."

Second try for auction

A CHARITY auction, cancelled after it clashed with a key Rugby World Cup match, will be held on November 24.

The sale was due to have taken place on October 20, but when it clashed with England's match against South Africa in the semi-finals, organisers decided to reschedule.

Paul Turner, one of the organisers of the auction, which is raising money for Focus on Africa to help build an orphanage in Kenya, said: "It just seemed sensible to re-organise it. But we are really looking forward to it now and have lots of good things up for grabs."

The auction will be held at Castle Manor School, Eastern Avenue, from 7pm.

Lots include a VIP guest day for two at Norwich City Football Club, an authenticated autographed Cliff Richard LP and a professional photo sitting.

Students work on new patch

PUPILS at Castle Manor Business and Enterprise College have been treated to a week without lessons.

Far from being bored, however, students were taking part in an Enterprise Week, designed to show them what the world of work is all about and involve the community in school activities.

Classes have been out and about in Haverhill taking part in activities ranging from a young chamber of commerce debate, building futuristic hover-boards and staging a fashion show of outfits designed and made by the students themselves.

A team of horticulture students showed off their bulb-planting skills to pupils on a new patch of land at the Sandcastle Playgroup as well as helping to plant flowerbeds around the Castle Manor site and the Haverhill Arts Centre.

James Tyler, assistant headteacher at the college, said: "It has been a busy week, with lots going on and with such a large range of activities to choose from, I'm sure Enterprise Week has been an exciting alternative to students' regular timetables."

Bird flu sparks farm lockdowns

BY David Williams and Laura Jean Morris

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

FARMERS around Haverhill have been banned from moving poultry outside the area.

On Tuesday, Defra confirmed the bird flu found in free-range turkeys being raised for Christmas at a farm in Redgrave, near Diss, on Sunday was the highly contagious H5N1 strain which can kill humans.

Officials implemented a 3km protection zone and 10km surveillance zone around the virus-infected farm, and a wider restricted zone was introduced on Tuesday morning to include all of Suffolk and most of Norfolk.

The H5N1 strain of the virus can pass to humans and has killed up to 200 people worldwide. But Defra stresses this is rare and requires close contact with infected birds.

Villages within the restricted zone include Clare, Great Wratting, Kedington and Thurlow. Livestock owners in the area are advised that all poultry should be isolated from wild birds, with feed and water under cover, and ideally brought inside.

Brian Fimmerty, spokesman for the National Farmers' Union, said: "This has come at a very bad time, just before Christmas and just after farmers have been hit by a rise in the cost of feed.

"However, the control methods in place are very effective and we hope to see the situation resolved as quickly as possible. Although at the moment no birds can go outside of the zone, they can be moved within it."

Peter Clarke, shop manager at Cherrytree Butchers in High Street, Haverhill said: "We deal with local farmers so we're keeping an eye on developments and hope it won't have an impact on our Christmas trade. Thankfully, it hasn't affected us at all at the moment."

More than 5,000 turkeys, 1,000 ducks and 500 geese have been culled at Redgrave Park Farm, which is run by a subsidiary of Gressingham Foods, Redgrave Poultry.

More than 22,000 birds at four other premises run by the firm were also due to be culled as a precaution, after it confirmed that they had been cared for by the same staff.

The East of England Development Agency has launched a £100,000 fund to support the region's beleaguered farmers. Its chair, Richard Ellis, said: "It has been a difficult few months with foot and mouth and bluetongue. The deadly strain of avian flu is more bad news and distressing for individuals concerned."

Chris Kaufman, the food and agriculture officer for Unite, Britain's largest food industry trade union, said the top priority was to contain the outbreak and reassure the public, adding: "The authorities learnt a great deal from the Bernard Matthews outbreak."

He said: "We will make sure the best interests of members are looked after. If that means pressing government for compensation, we will press."

Robert Sturdy, Eastern region MEP, urged the public to support poultry farmers. He said: "This couldn't have happened at a worse time for poultry farmers in the region, it is the busiest and most important time of their year."

"I'd like to offer reassurances to the public to continue buying poultry without fear. The Food Standard agency has confidently stated there is no risk in eating cooked poultry or eggs."

Certificates for volunteers

A GROUP of women who successfully completed a first aid course run by the Haverhill Volunteer Centre (HVC) have been presented with their certificates.

The centre supported the Wednesday 4 Women group who took the course as part of the Choices for Women project.

The project aims to support women returning to work by gaining experience through volunteer work.

Coun Sara Mildmay-White, a cabinet member of St Edmundsbury Borough Council, made the presentations at the Leiston Centre in Haverhill.

More information can be found at the website www.hvc.org.uk

New leisurely route for road users

A NEW route to Haverhill leisure centre has been opened.

The normal access from Ehringshausen Way is suspended during construction of the new cinema. Visitors can now drive into the car park behind the fire station by using Reeds Lane.

Coun Nigel Aitkens, St Edmundsbury's cabinet member with responsibility for Haverhill, said: "We would like to remind customers of the leisure centre that the building is still open for business despite the work."

"We are keen to keep any disruption to local people to an absolute minimum, and hope this new route will provide leisure centre customers with a convenient alternative to the front access."

Construction of the five-screen cinema complex and two restaurants is due for completion by late next year.

PICK OF THE PETS

THE Stour Valley branch of Cats Protection has cats desperately looking for new homes.

Some arrive as strays, many are unwanted or simply abandoned. Others come from loving homes that, due to circumstances, are unable to care for them any longer.

When a cat comes in, it is given a complete health check by a vet which includes worming, removing all unsolicited visitors (fleas, earmites, etc) and dental checks, ensuring that when that special home comes along, it leaves in the best possible health. The welfare of cats is top priority and the branch always visits prospective owners first to make sure of the best possible home. It is the Cats Protection League policy never to put a healthy animal down and it welcomes any donation from new owners. If you can offer a home to any of the cats contact (01440) 730096.

PLAYFUL Missy would love to find someone who will give her lots of fuss. She came into Cats Protection with her brother Bob and would be lost without him so it would be great if they could get a caring home together.

BOB is three-years-old and hopes that someone can give him many happy years of love and affection. He is easily pleased and likes nothing more than a cuddle or to play. Most of all he wants a home with his best friend, sister Missy.

GORGEOUS Tilly is a four-year-old female domestic short-hair. A lovely-natured, affectionate little girl, she would love a home where she can be the only pet in the household. She is unhappy around other cats or dogs and would love to be the centre of her new owner's attention.

■ SIMPLY THE BEST . . . Members of the Steeple Bumpstead Playgroup, who have received top marks across the board following a recent Ofsted report. Picture: Keith Heppell 445576.

Report gives tots full marks

A LOCAL playgroup has been praised for its "stimulating and exciting activities" and "confident children" in its latest Ofsted inspection.

Steeple Bumpstead Pre-School Playgroup received scores of "outstanding" and "good" for all areas within the report.

Catherine Condie, chairman of the playgroup based at Steeple Bumpstead village hall, said: "It is completely a team effort and a reflection of all the hard work over the last year.

"The children are a shining example of enthusiasm and enjoyment – you can really see it in their faces that they enjoy being with us. It's a terrific environment to be working in."

Lynn Clements, the Ofsted inspector, said: "The children are extremely confident in their relationships with each other and staff. "Stimulating and exciting activities are planned and set up for children to investigate at their leisure."

So far this term children at the playgroup have taken part in a bug week with snail racing and studies of a wormery and an ant farm as well as enjoying a week of ghoulish fun for Hallowe'en.

Thieves take schools' lead

BY John Downing

Email: editorial@steetnews.co.uk

SCHOOLS across the region have been stripped of thousands of pounds worth of copper and lead.

Metals worth £75,000 were stolen from the roofs of 22 schools around the county which were targeted in the past few months.

Senior councillors at Cambridgeshire County Council have condemned the thefts for disrupting children's education and putting lives at risk.

A total of 13 schools in Cambridge and South Cambridgeshire have been the victims of metal theft. The thefts will cost the county council more than £75,000, and the authority is increasing security at school sites as a result.

Coun Jill Tuck, cabinet member for children and young people's services, said: "These thefts are highly irresponsible and on the increase.

"Not only do they disrupt children's education when affected buildings have to close, but they also pose a great danger – to the children and the thieves themselves.

"The theft of copper and lead on a scale such as this requires large vehicles and takes considerable time.

"I would urge everyone to be vigilant and immediately report any suspicious activity around schools to the police."

Dr Anthony Russell, the Bishop of Ely, wrote to Julie Spence, Cambridgeshire's Chief Constable, in August about the high number of metal thefts from churches, which has cost parishes more than £1 million.

St Mary the Virgin Church in Fen Ditton was struck four times in September. The thefts have cost £12,000 and although the church is insured it has to pay a contribution towards replacing the lead.

Detective Inspector Martin Brunning said: "A force-wide operation is ongoing to tackle metal theft offenders.

"I would urge people to continue providing us with information and report any suspicious behaviour, particularly around vulnerable buildings such as churches, schools and other public buildings.

"It is our aim to catch people in the act of committing these thefts, and tip-offs from the public are crucial."

Anyone with information should contact police on 0845 456 4564 or call Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

CHRISTMAS WISHES

chocolate this Christmas

■ A PROPER SWEET SHOP... jar upon jar of temptation!

■ INDULGENCE IN THE FAMILY... Martin and Zoe Stockings run the independant chocolate shop on Queen Street.

exactly like a chocolate shop they would expect to see in Belgium or Germany," says Martin. "Other customers comment on how amazing they think the shop is."

Indulgence boasts a Belgian chocolate counter alongside creamy hand made fudge, boxes of chocolates, bars of chocolate from all over the world, jars of sweets, nougat cakes and much more.

Also available is an impressive selection of Christmas novelty treats including Christmas tree decorations and fun stocking fillers.

Customers can create their own special box of chocolates from the Belgian Chocolate counter with a selection of more than 30 different flavours to choose from.

"We bring in new varieties every two weeks," explains Martin. "We always stock the popular ones; rum truffle, chilli truffle and passion fruit truffle are particularly well liked."

The hand picked Belgian chocolate boxes are an ideal Christmas present for any chocoholic. Individual boxes can be made while you wait but if you require more than one box then Martin asks that you pre-order your requirements which can then be collected from the shop at a convenient time or delivered directly to you.

Indulgence is open Monday to Saturday 9am-5pm and on Sundays 10am-2pm during December.

For more information call (01440) 706224 or call into the shop at 25-27 Queen Street, Haverhill.

Protect your skin this winter

WITH the party season looming now is the time to get your skin prepped and ready to dazzle.

The harsh winter elements can result in chapped hands, sore lips and a red nose so as the temperatures drop your beauty routine needs to increase.

"Long bouts of cold weather can be tough on both our skin and general well-being," says Anita Vukomancic, holistic cosmetologist at London's Inhale clinic.

"Moisture levels drop to an all-time low, sometimes even below 30 per cent."

Follow this guide to ensure your skin is in top condition this Christmas – and enjoy it as you do!

FACE IT

You can wrap up your body in snug winter warmers, protect your hands with gloves and indulge your feet with snugly socks, but your poor face bears the brunt of the winter weather. Short of spending the winter season in a balaclava, your face needs extra protection from exposure to the elements.

Jane Richardson of NARS cosmetics has this advice: "Remember that your skin changes season to season, so if you are still using a light, oil-free version it's time to switch to a richer cream as winter sets in. Just don't over apply."

"At least once a week, treat your skin to a moisturising mask. Most can be applied and left on overnight."

BEAUTIFUL BODY

Covering up in layers and hiding your pins in thick opaques is no excuse to let your moisturising routines flag over winter. Your body needs extra attention at this time of year if you want to avoid unsightly scaly skin.

"Nurturing is something I feel is more important in winter than in the summer months," says Noella Gabriel, Elemis director of product and treatment development.

"It's the ideal time to run a body temperature bath and indulge with an exotic bath oil or milk."

HAND-SOME

Hands are often the first beauty casualty when temperatures plummet. Those stylish long leather gloves of this season may provide some armour against the cold but give your digits a helping hand over winter with SOS treatments.

"Our hands, nails and cuticles can become dry and chapped very easily in the winter," warns skincare expert Liz Earle.

"To avoid damage to hands, it's best to apply a thick layer of moisturiser twice a day, especially after washing your hands. It's also important to take care of nails and cuticles – our cuticles are essential to healthy nails and can become dry and cracked in winter."

FEET FIRST

We're approaching the season where our feet can really take a pounding – extra dance floor manoeuvres and Christmas shopping sprees can make feet super-sore and dry. Not pretty if you're planning on wearing slinky slingback shoes over the party season.

Atoshi Ghosal, Vaseline technical expert, has this advice for winter-fit feet: "Regularly scrub with a pumice stone to reveal the soft skin underneath, then moisturise with an intensive hydrating foot cream."

"Do apply some Vaseline petroleum jelly where new shoes are likely to rub for pain-free style over the party season."

■ LUXURY . . . a little pampering goes a long way to helping your skin.

Give a gift with a difference

IF you're short of ideas for what to buy your friends and family for the annual Christmas frolics then why not send them on the trip of a lifetime?

There is a wealth of glossy brochures full of travel and leisure gifts offering a range of unusual experiences and journeys which they will remember for the rest of their lives.

Here's a sample of what's on offer:

■ Short-break specialist Cities Direct organises packages to about 60 cities. Its gift packages include either holidays or vouchers for recipients to spend on a holiday. Cities Direct: (01242) 536 900 and www.citiesdirect.co.uk

■ Give a visit to a luxury spa: www.spafinder.co.uk, launched in 1986, has grown into the world's largest spa gifting programme. Available in amounts of £25 and more, SpaFinder gift vouchers can be cashed in at 125 day and spa salons in the UK and nearly 4,000 worldwide. Gift vouchers can be bought online or at your local Sainsbury's, WH Smith, ASDA or Somerfield. Enquiries: online only at www.spafinder.co.uk

■ Give tickets to a top premiership soccer match:

Treat someone with an experience package

Thomas Cook Sport Match Break packages at home games played by Arsenal, Chelsea, Manchester City, Tottenham, West Ham United, Celtic and Rangers from £80 per person include match ticket, overnight accommodation, match programme, stadium tour and possibly a visit to the club museum. ■ Choose a gift on www.lastminute.com: a big selection on this ever-expanding travel website includes Elemis dream travel gift (£65); adopt a vine (£39); luxury break at Ragdale Hall (£579.95) and hot air balloon ride (£129). The website also offers theme park tickets much cheaper than gate prices. Alton Towers charges £32 per adult and £22 per child on the day, while lastminute.com quotes £24 and £16.

■ Calm those fears of flying: ranging from £195 for a group session to £1,995 for individual training, three courses available through Cheapflights should help travellers taxi down the runway without a care in the world.

Three companies – Aviatours, Virgin Atlantic and Flying Fear – offer these courses, the Virgin course offering a certificate signed by Richard Branson at the end.

Kedington

■ Garden Society: A very good turnout of members attended the monthly meeting of the garden society at the legion hall. Chairman Madge Pelling welcomed the evening speaker Peter Beale, who was back by popular demand after his visit in June.

His talk entitled "The light through the trees" was the second part of the June talk and further described some of his work with the Forestry Commission in Suffolk, Cambridgeshire and southern England. The talk, illustrated by another wonderful selection of slides, again dwelt on all aspects of wildlife but with a particular emphasis on water wildlife. Peter had created ponds and ditches to attract the various species of water creatures and he reflected on the many hours he had spent by the water with his camera ready to record any wildlife, fish, birds or insects, that came his way, to add to his collection of slides. His work for 40 years with the Forestry Commission involved felling many trees to open up spaces in woods to encourage the growth of flowers and wildlife. His work has been acclaimed widely, to such an extent that a wood in southern England has been named after him. Sir David Attenborough has acknowledged Peter's contribution to wildlife. Since retirement Peter has lived in Sturmer and is a popular speaker on wildlife. He answered questions and was thanked by the chairman for a most interesting and informative talk. The evening concluded by making arrangements for the Christmas party and for members to volunteer for maintenance work on the Millennium Park.

■ Street Party: Kedington Primary School travelled back in time on Friday afternoon as they organised a replica of a World War Two street party in the school hall. Children and invited parents and friends relived a similar street party which marked the end of the Second World War along with the elder children of the Jaguars and Leopards. Parents and friends who had helped to organise the event and guests were welcomed by school teacher Mrs Pam Gilchrist who took on the role of master of ceremonies. Many of those attending, both young and old, had some items of clothing from the period. Items of interest included a gas mask and identity cards to add to the reality of the occasion. A display of medals and coins were on show, and coins were presented to the children. The school had been decorated with flags and the refreshments included spam and jam sandwiches. The party began with a sing-song of the popular wartime songs led by music teacher Hillary Shaw on piano. The songs included such popular ballads as Pack up Your Troubles and It's a Long Way to Tipperary. Teachers and friends helped in the distribution of refreshments to some 60 children, who afterwards formed small groups to hear war memories and ask questions about the war. It was a most memorable afternoon for one and all.

■ Diary: Thursday, November 15: Noah's House Café, community centre, 2.30-4.30pm, all welcome; 78th annual general meeting of Kedington and District Branch Royal British Legion, legion hall, 7.30pm. Friday, November 16: Quiz night in aid of the parish church restoration fund, 7.30pm. Sunday, November 18: Stourhead benefice service, Little Wrattling Church, 10am. Church in the Field service, community centre, 10.30am. Monday, November 19: RBL bingo evening in aid of the Poppy Appeal, included the grand draw, 7.30pm. Tuesday, November 20: Monthly meeting of the parish council at the Library, 7.40pm.

Treats from Shakespeare on stage and screen

COMING-OF-AGE comedy Superbad (15) is showing at the Haverhill Arts Centre on Thursday at 7.45pm. Evan and Seth have a ridiculously dependent friendship, but now they are going to different colleges they are forced to contemplate a life apart.

■ Love & Madness Ensemble return with two classics. On Friday at 7.30pm there will be a performance of Shakespeare's The Tempest directed by Jack Shepherd.

■ Shelley's Frankenstein is brought to life in a stunning new adaptation by Catriona Craig on Saturday at 7.30pm. Victor Frankenstein is an ambitious young student who assembles a creature from dead body parts and succeeds in giving it life. The results are terrifying.

■ Arnold Sinfonia, the new fully professional orchestra promoted by Haverhill Sinfonia, named in honour of English composer, Sir Malcolm Arnold, who was composer patron of Haverhill Sinfonia for 10 years from 1996 until his death, will be performing at the Arts Centre on Sunday at 7.30pm. The programme includes Arnold Sinfonietta No 3.

■ One of Shakespeare's most popular comedies, As You Like It (12A), directed by Kenneth Brannagh, will be screened on Tuesday at 7.45pm.

■ The Dark is Rising (12A) showing on Wednesday at 7.45pm and Thursday, November 22, at 5pm, is a rip-roaring tale of a young boy who discovers that he is the latest in a long line of immortal warriors.

■ Forever in Blue Jeans return with their new show Jump and Jive on Friday, November 23, at 8pm. The show includes 50s favourites plus treats from the swinging 60s with Twist and Shout, The Hippie Hippy Shake, and much more!

■ For more details about the shows, or to book tickets, phone (01440) 714140 or go to www.haverhillartscentre.co.uk

New sinfonia strikes up

By Jo Deeks

THERE'S a unique chance for music lovers to be there at the start of something special when the Arnold Sinfonia performs its inaugural concert on Sunday. Promoted by Haverhill Sinfonia, the Arnold Sinfonia is the first professional orchestra to be based in the town. Organisers describe the group as an exciting new venture for Haverhill and are hoping for plenty of support for the concert, which starts at 7.30pm at Haverhill Arts Centre.

The amateur group Haverhill Sinfonia performed its first concert in 1986 and built a solid reputation from its 90 orchestral concerts over 21 years. But following a gradual decline in the number of local amateur musicians, it was decided to suspend Haverhill Sinfonia's concerts as an amateur-based orchestra. However, Haverhill Sinfonia continues to promote the Haverhill Sinfonia Soloist Competition and recitals, as well as concerts given by the newly-formed and fully-professional Arnold Sinfonia, named in honour of the great English composer, Sir Malcolm Arnold, who was the patron composer of Haverhill Sinfonia for 10 years from 1996 until his death last year. The 42 players of Arnold Sinfonia, who on this occasion will be arranged in the format of a chamber orchestra, with strings, wind and brass, will performing some true gems.

■ SOMETHING SPECIAL . . . acclaimed violinist Leonard Schreiber will give a guest performance at the inaugural concert of Haverhill's first professional orchestra, the Arnold Sinfonia.

Their programme includes Sinfonietta No. 3 by Malcolm Arnold, The Banks of Green Willow by Butterworth, Souvenir d'un lieu cher by Tchaikovsky, Siegfried Idyll by Wagner and Six Songs Without Words by Mendelssohn.

Conducted by Kevin Hill, the group will also be joined by the outstanding Belgian violinist, Leonard Schreiber. Tickets cost £10, or £6 and £2 for concessions, and are available at the door or in advance by telephoning Haverhill Arts Centre's box office on (01440) 714140.

Focus gets update and ST500

FORD has announced the arrival of a new special edition of the high performance Focus ST. Called the Focus ST500, and priced from £20,495, it will be available to just 500 UK customers.

The Ford Focus ST500 is based on the top-of-the-range Focus ST3 with the addition of unique features. All models are finished in metallic black with classic silver bonnet, roof and side stripes which are designed to echo the livery of the winning GT40 in the 1-2-3 victory at Le Mans in 1966.

Power comes from the Focus ST's 20-valve five-cylinder Duratec 2.5 engine, which develops 223bhp at 6,100rpm and 236 lb.ft of torque at 1,600rpm. Since its introduction in 2005, the Focus ST has established itself as one of the finest "hot hatchbacks" ever made and received critical acclaim from the specialist media and enthusiast customers alike.

Included in the Focus ST500's unique specification are scarlet leather Recaro sports seats and matching upholstery, special ST500 badging, automatic Xenon high-intensity headlamps, auto-dimming rear view mirror, rain-sensing wipers and solar-reflect windscreen.

Meanwhile Ford is due to announce prices for the all-new Focus range next week.

Now in its second generation following its 1998 launch, with more than 1.1 million examples sold in the UK and a range which includes hatchback, saloon, estate and Coupé-Cabriolet derivatives, the Focus success story enters another chapter.

Following its unveiling at the Frankfurt Motor Show, Ford has announced that a new version of its family favourite will go on sale in the UK in February. Three-door, four-door, five-door and estate body styles will be first in UK showrooms, Coupé-Cabriolet and ST sporting flagship variants arriving later in the spring.

Benefiting from Ford's 'kinetic design' approach to styling, the 2008 Focus takes its inspiration from the critically acclaimed new Mondeo. The result is a classier and more distinctive appearance from a vehicle that's now as exciting to look at as it is to drive.

The aesthetic appeal of Ford's latest Focus is matched by a range of mechanical introductions, including an all-new automated gearbox. The Ford PowerShift transmission will be available from early 2008 in the new Ford Focus as well as the Ford C-MAX, in combination with the 134bhp and new 108bhp versions of the 2.0-litre Duratorq TDCi engine.

As a direct result of the Ford EConetic initiative, all Focus 1.6-litre TDCi variants will achieve 119g/km CO2 and this is regardless of power rating, body style or wheel dimensions. The Flexifuel version of the 1.8-litre Duratec petrol four-cylinder engine can be fuelled with bio-ethanol E85-fuel as an alternative to conventional unleaded petrol – or in any mix of both. The Ford Focus range also includes CNG (compressed natural gas) and LPG (liquefied petroleum gas) derivatives both based on the 2.0-litre Duratec petrol engine.

■ THE ALL-NEW FORD FOCUS . . . the nose is brought into line with the Mondeo's look.

■ THE ST500 . . . Le Mans style go-faster stripes are included in the package.

MOTURING

Price of petrol tops £1/litre for first time

THE average price of petrol at the pumps has pushed through the £1 a litre barrier for the first time, it was revealed this week.

The average price based on Wednesday's figures showed motorists are now having to pay 100.08p a litre for petrol, the AA said. Diesel has now risen to a new average high of 103.32p a litre, the AA added.

At the start of the year petrol was 88.32p a litre on average, with diesel at 93.68p a litre.

This means that UK drivers are now spending an extra £8.08 million a day on petrol compared with the beginning of 2007.

The contrast with February this year – when the lowest average petrol price of 85.99p a litre was recorded – is even greater.

Also, this time last year petrol cost 86.11p a litre. This means UK drivers are now spending nearly £9.61 million extra a day compared with the same time last year.

Individually, for a motorist with a typical 50-litre fuel tank, a petrol refill is costing £6.99 more than this time last year.

Per month, UK drivers are on average spending £15.33 extra on petrol compared with the same time last year. In a two-car owning household, this is a £30.66 added drain on the family budget.

AA head of road safety Andrew Howard said today: "Yesterday saw the average price of a litre of petrol in the UK exceed £1.00 for the first time.

"Relief for the British motorist is unlikely in the near future."

Bono auctions all-star bike for charity

THE chance to own a motorbike belonging to the U2 singer and activist Bono and support lifesaving work in Africa is on offer at a charity auction in December.

Bono's red Ducati 916 has a truly star-studded history, having previously belonged to the tragic INXS singer Michael Hutchence, as well as U2 bass player Adam Clayton.

Now the bike will be auctioned at the International Motorcycle and Scooter Show at the Birmingham NEC on December 2.

The proceeds will go to support the work of Riders For Health, which provides vehicles and safety training for healthcare workers in Africa.

Bono has dedicated the bike to Hutchence, signing the fuel tank: "To Michael, Bono".

Riders For Health chief executive Andrea Coleman said: "Bono's commitment to Africa and his support for those living in poverty and ill-health is well-known. And for us at Riders For Health, reaching those people in rural Africa is our focus and is a major challenge. Riders For Health knows that you can't save a child unless you can reach it.

"Bono's support for our work is valued highly and we thank him."

■ BONO AND HIS DUCATI 916 . . . proceeds from the sale will go to charity.

Coach Drivers – Night rotas
£26,000 pa + pension + benefits
Stansted

Our Night Coach Drivers command the same state-of-the-art National Express coaches as our Daytime Coach Drivers. The big difference is that the roads are emptier. Once you've taken our customers to and from the airport, you'll understand why it's such a desirable role.

Collecting tickets, loading luggage and handing out useful advice are big parts of the job too. You can't simply turn up with a PCV licence and some driving experience. You need to create an 'experience' all of your own and be flexible enough to work long or short haul. So while there's a pension and free travel on offer, this will most appeal to your love of people and the open road. Apply by calling 0845 345 0355, visiting www.nationalexpress.jobs or from your mobile phone, www.nationalexpressjobs.mobi

■ Due to a restructure within the advertising department, we are now looking to recruit a Sales Manager to be based at our Royston office.

Reporting to the Area Sales Manager you will be responsible for managing a team of Sales representatives, Telesales Advisors and Receptionists who sell advertising across our portfolio of newspapers and niche publications.

The successful candidate will need to demonstrate strong leadership and motivational skills and also be able to develop team members whilst playing a key role in the strategic development of the title.

Tractor Boys legend Wark to aid Wratting's cause

IPSWICH Town and Liverpool great John Wark will be helping West Wratting Football Club to raise some much-needed cash when he attends a special fundraising evening.

The event will take place at the West Wratting Sports Pavilion on Friday, November 23.

Wark, winner of the Professional Footballers Association player of the year in 1981 and numerous other European and domestic trophies, recently attended the official opening of the new pavilion, and was more than happy to return to help with further fundraising.

The football club, who received a grant of £120,000 from the Football Foundation, £43,000 from the South Cambs District Council and £5,000 from the local parish council, as well as raising £15,000 themselves, still ended up with a deficit of £13,000.

This shortfall was a result of the Awards for All and Big Lottery grants not being awarded due to a change in the acceptance criteria.

This meant the only way to pay the builder was for football teams to take out personal loans.

The event, featuring John Wark, will help pay back some of the amounts owed.

The evening will start with a talk by the former Scottish international, who will share some experiences from his illustrious footballing career.

This will be followed by a question-and-answer session.

There will be a prize draw with the chance to win signed Ipswich Town shirts, balls and two pairs of tickets to watch the Tractor Boys in action.

Ticket are priced £15, including a meal of chicken and chips.

For further information and to buy tickets, contact Colin on 07899998881 or Richard on 01440 710303 (evenings).

Gunners beaten by slick Rowdies

GRAMPIAN went out of the cup after being well beaten by a useful Huntingdon side. The visitors led after two minutes with a goal by Will Howe and drew level just before half-time, thanks to a Luke Halls' strike. However, Grampian's hopes were killed off when they let in four goals in an eight-minute period in the second half. Grampian manager Simon Youngs said: "In the first half, we matched them, but then they took over.

"I have no complaints and you get what you deserve.

"The boys have to learn, we are at a different level this year and perhaps some of them are not up to it. Hopefully they will prove me wrong."

WRATTING looked to climb the table and they did just that in local derby that delivered everything.

Balsham had also started their campaign well and set out to unsettle their opponents with a strong midfield and added speed up front.

Scotton and Massie were equal to the threat and intercepted well and pushed possession wide to Stevenson and Cooper.

Ager was strong in the middle and it was only a few minutes before good work by Lambert was expertly finished off by Elliott for 1-0.

Lambert blasted home to make it 2-0 and it was 3-0 when Scotton scored his fourth of the season with a scorching effort.

Payne then collected the ball and finished well in off the post for 4-0.

The second half saw Wratting play the ball around the field and, within five minutes, Foster and Stevenson had split the defence open for Lambert to coolly slot the ball home.

The same player grabbed his hat-trick before Stevenson set up Ankers to make it 7-0.

Balsham grabbed a goal back before a clever free-kick, taken by Ager, found Lambert, who set up Stevenson to nod home for 8-1.

DESPITE the vast majority of possession the Wratting side found chances hard to come by against a fire-up Spartak side.

It was only the bravery of Wratting's Sam Street, who put his head in among a host of flying boots to convert a corner, that separated the sides at half time.

Wratting started the second period with a renewed confidence and their second and third goals were again the result of corners, as first Alex Carter and then Cameron Kidd latched on to loose balls to fire home.

Captain Paul Jenkinson then found his goal-scoring touch, firing in a superb hat-trick, including a great chip from the edge of the area and a snap shot that rocketed into the bottom corner.

William Bailey then joined in the fun, bagging a couple and Joshua Ruthven completed the scoring with a great strike from the edge of the area.

Hawks are pegged back amid derby excitement

THIS match proved to be the typical local derby with both sides battling all the way. Hundon struck first when their man-of-the-match Branham Ince got on the scoresheet.

However, just before the break, Gunners got back on level terms.

Jake Ryan and Anders Pilley came close for Hundon before sloppy defending allowed the Gunners to take a 2-1 lead.

After a dazzling run, birthday boy Milo Holmes slammed in the equaliser and, after some tenacious work from Tommy Goodwin, the same player cracked in his second to make it 3-2.

Kieran Grace and Liam Cohen were superb at the back for Hawks, but, after the move of the match by Gunners, another birthday boy, Jonny Frost, made an outstanding double save. However, with seconds to go, the Gunners grabbed a dramatic equaliser to square the match and give Hawks and Gunner a share of the spoils.

Forshaw hammers four

GRAMPIAN'S Jason Moore was at the heart of everything as they took the game to Linton.

The first goal went to Linton as they converted a free-kick, but Gunners' Jamie Lingard crossed for Josh Matthewson to quickly equalise.

Wingers Toby Daly and man-of-the-match Lingard caused mayhem for Linton, had their goalkeeper to thank for some top saves.

Mitchell Forshaw then cheekily nutmegged him to send Grampian in 2-1 up at half time.

George Mustoe and Bailey Cassidy produced a superb defensive display with Lewis Knightly making some excellent saves at this crucial stage.

Daly then crossed for Forshaw to smash home, before setting up Lewis Whiting to score. He then passed for Forshaw to round the keeper for his hat-trick. Jack Ferguson could have also had a hat-trick, but for some magnificent Linton goalkeeping before Daly again crossed for Forshaw to score his fourth. Linton never gave up and got two goals at the death.

Arrendene triumph in seven-goal thriller

ARRENDENE sprung a surprise with the Division Five minnows recording a superb victory over their opponents from two sections higher.

With less than a minute gone, Athletic came close to taking the lead. Sean Spiers beat two of the visiting defenders and hit a 20-yard strike that was tipped on to the post.

The hosts played some nice football in the opening half-hour and eventually got their reward when Spiers was played in down the right of the box and finished with a powerful drive.

The visitors replied with some sustained pressure, with keeper Edwards saving well on a couple of occasions.

And they forced an equaliser a couple of minutes before the interval.

Athletic started brightly in the second half, and took the lead again when Alan Brittain put the ball into the net after Barnardiston had failed to clear from a corner.

The away side replied again, their forward dribbling around the Athletic goalkeeper and finishing well.

Athletic continued to look for the win though and again took the lead when Aaron Stiebrins' left-foot strike cannoned off the bar and into the net for his first goal of the season.

And the hosts sealed their passage into the second round when Spiers hit his second goal and Athletic's fourth, a 30-yard free-kick that nestled in the top corner of the net.

Barnardiston refused to be beaten and grabbed a late third, though the Athletic defence, marshalled by the McBrien brothers, held strong for the final minutes.

TREADFIRST SUDBURY & DIST SUNDAY LEAGUE,
EDAN TROPHY, FIRST ROUND

FOLLOWING their heavy defeat the previous week, the Feather Angels were out with a point to prove this week in the first round of the Eden Trophy against opposition from a division higher. Delaware opened the scoring in the first half when a corner from Delaware's Matt Cullen was tapped home with a neat flick by striker James Strachan.

The opposition soon levelled the score at 1-1 with a free kick from outside the box.

Ten minutes from half-time, striker Christian Jaques broke through the Woolpack defence to give Delaware the lead once again.

The Angels got off to an unlucky start to the second half, when their otherwise solid defence was breached once again by a chip shot from the edge of the 18-yard box, which floated over the hands of keeper Luke Mott and into the net. At 2-2, Delaware turned up the power, as quick-footed winger Sean McCormack put them ahead. Jaques then slotted home his second goal to put some clear water between themselves and their opponents.

With several clear chances and two goals disallowed from dubious offside decisions, Delaware dominated the game, progressing confidently to the next round of the cup.

Delaware's man-of-the-match was Marc Jason.

Rovers on cloud nine as Vowden leads way

■ COLIN VOWDEN . . . his goal set Haverhill on their way to victory over Harwich on Saturday.

HAVERHILL Rovers made light work of Harwich & Parkeston with a 4-1 victory at Hamlet Croft on Saturday, which extended their unbeaten Ridgeons League, Premier Division run to nine games.

The home side started well and could have gone in front on 10 minutes, but Adam Bensaude's snap-shot from Marcus Hunt's through-ball went over.

However, Rovers did find the back of the net near the end of the first half when Nick Impey's header from a Paul Abbott cross was only parried to veteran defender Colin Vowden to bundle home on 40 minutes.

Rovers then doubled their advantage on 56 minutes, Sam

Green finishing well into the bottom left-hand corner from a Marc Abbott pass.

Joe Harvey went close to getting on the scoresheet on 62 minutes, but his shot off an Impey ball in was saved, however, the Rovers midfielder made no mistake a minute later when he got in on the act with Haverhill's third on 63 minutes with a curling effort from 15 yards out before Harwich pulled one back.

Martin Westcott had a shot go wide on 83 minutes before Harwich finally pulled a goal back four minutes from time.

However, Rovers put the exclamation point on their fifth league win in the last six outings with a fourth courtesy of Bensaude, who slid in to tuck away Impey's pass two minutes into stoppage time.

Steve Taylor's side are now seventh in the table and will be keen to extend the unbeaten record to 10 matches with a result at Dereham on Saturday.

RUGBY

Quinney
ponder

HAVERHILL were soundly beaten 46-6 by Newmarket in their Eastern Counties Two local derby match on Saturday.

With their only points coming from the boot of Jake Plumridge, Haverhill skipper Dave Quinney was left to comment: "We played well in places. We were refereed off the park a bit.

"We took it to them, which they didn't like, but then we switched off. But they played very well and some good rugby. They were very well-drilled and a good side."

Touchdowns from Chris Beaton, Ben Boss, Ben Cockerton, Hayden Marsh, Joe Parr and Lewis Smith, plus a penalty try, and four conversions and a penalty from Hughes helped Newmarket – who led 24-6 at half time – to bounce back from their first defeat of the season.

"It was a good game and a vast improvement on last week," said their skipper Martin Hughes. "Our forwards were outstanding. It was a solid game, but nothing came through the backs. We made some tackles and produced some nice moves."
